“ My best friend, my brother, that grew on me when I married your best friend. I told you I would forever stand by your side and I promise you this forever. My life and my heart will never, ever be the same until I see your eyes again. I will always hike in sketchers because of you. I love you Jer

“ There's not a single day that I'd pass up a call from Jeremy. We'd start the call with our typical work matters, and it would always end up turning into talking about Max and how spoiled Jeremy thought he was. Those calls would end, and our emails would continue passing back and forth pictures of our dogs just to brighten our endless workday.

My heart aches at the thought of never being able to share these moments with him again. My thoughts are with his beloved dog Max, his incredibly loved and well talked of daughter Izzy, and his friends and family that bare this heartache.

“ I've only been working with Jeremy for a short while, but in that time he was always one of the nicest people, he was always so patient when it came to helping out if I had any questions. Im going to miss our long work calls about weekend plans, and the most random topics to distract from work. A true pleasure to know him, if only for a brief amount of time. I give all my love and condolences to his family.

“ My Best Friend above all else. My caring and silly lover. My work cube mate. The master of our kitchen. My golf cart buddy. The greatest cuddle bear a girl could ask for. The navigator for every adventure we went on. My partner in every single day!

I think of you and all the things you used to say and do. Two odd birds we always were together. But we fit just right. U made me laugh or roll my eyes at you every single day. Now every second and every minute my thoughts are of you. Not just those last moments...but all the seconds, minutes, days, months and years before.

To lose you was a bitter wrench. The pain has cut me to the core. I cry and cry and then cry some more. Keep pleading to God that please - this is just a nightmare. Wake up Erin.

I know this wouldn't be your wish for me. That I'd be forever sad and haunted. So I will do my best to remind myself of the happiest times we had.

I know that I can't be with you now and you can't physically be with me but I will keep you safe inside my heart and that's where you'll FOREVER be.

I pray with all my heart that the demons are gone and that you're at peace. I'm sorry that I could not keep them away.

I love you with my whole heart and I will miss you my entire life! You were the most unique treasure a girl could have ever asked to find.

I will love you till the end of time!

“ My deepest condolences to Jeremy's family and friends. Jeremy had a way of making the most ordinary things magical. You forever changed the way I would hike, kayak, canoe, travel, golf, watch a baseball game, watch a sunrise or set, cook, or camp on a beach. Whatever you did, you were all or nothing. You would tell me "to give anything less than your best is to sacrifice the gift". I spent the last three days outside hiking, biking, and watching the sun set. There were so many things I saw that I knew you would have loved. You are everywhere. I'm glad to have had the privilege to know you and to love someone who always seemed larger than life. I pray you have found your peace.

I will miss our talks, planning our 2021 hike and you picking on me. Thank you for the memories Jerm, I will forever cherish them, I love you. Hugs and prayers to everyone who loved you.

“ So sorry for all the family's loss of Jerm. He was a close friend of our family for many years and used to live with my brother. Jeremy had a big heart and would do anything for anyone who needed help. It's been years since I talked to him but that doesn't take away the memories. Lake Placid triathlons will always be some of my favorite. Rest In Peace Jerm. Love Always, Amber Monaghan

“ Its sad how his step sister was omitted from the obituary as were all the Ney's side of the family whom he was very close to. Sorry just a little angry about this and I don't care what anyone says he was my brother and I have always called him that!!!! Jerm I will forever love you and know that you are at peace because you are with our other brother Chris whom was your very best friend. Fly high my angel till we meet again.
