

Carol Klock

September 9, 1946 - January 2, 2013

Carol A. Klock, 66, of Herndon, passed away on January 2, 2013, peacefully, at her residence. She was born in Sunbury, PA on September 9, 1946, a daughter of the late Lois (Hummel) Ulrich and the late Gery E. Ulrich. Carol was employed at JGOH Packaging, Amity House and last employed at the Herndon Fire Co as a bar manager. She was the wife of Douglas A. Klock, married since Nov 14, 2003

She was a member of Erdman Sportsman Club, Lower Mahanoy Fire Co, Goodwill Hose Company, Alvin E. Long Post No. 504, and the Women of the Moose. Carol enjoyed working in her flower beds, collecting Boyds Bears and blue glassware. But her main passion in life was managing the Herndon Fire Company, shopping for the supplies, decorating and organizing the dances and other functions. She also enjoyed her dog Mia.

Carol is survived by her loving spouse Douglas Klock, daughter - Sherri and John Percoskie; granddaughter - Amy Percoskie; grandson - Dustin and Jeness Underkoffler; 3 stepchildren - Nicci and Todd Brandt, Jacob Klock, Levi and Holly Klock; step- grandchild - Dawson and Amber Brandt; brother - Donald Ulrich and companion Vickie King; sister - Sharon and Ted Biernstein;

“ Doug: Randy and I were so sorry to hear of Carols passing. Our hearts and prayers are with you during this time of healing. PLEASE, if you need anything or a shoulder to cry on, we are just a couple of minutes away. She is in gods loving hands now and at peace. She will always be around and don't forget to talk to her from time to time. You will find peace in doing so. We will all miss her terribly.
