“ She lived in Gratz, and after she retired I'd go visit her when my mom was working in town. She always had the fluffiest sugar cookies to share. Her husband was also very generous with his woodworking crafts to help a lonely little girl feel very special indeed. Heaven did indeed gain an angel with Ms Witmer.

Mrs. Witmer was one of the most caring, sweet, compassionate people I ever knew. I can attest to the fact she cared deeply and genuinely about the students , because I was one who she helped. I will always fondly remember her walk. You always knew it was Mrs Witmer coming by the sound of her shoes and how fast she was walking. She was loved by so many and I'm sure we all will think of her fondly. Thank you Mrs. Witmer for all you did for so many students. Rest in a peace sweet lady. ❤️

“ She was the school nurse through generations. Always kind and caring. I have a small manger scene delicately cut from wood that her husband made and gave me when doing drapes for her many years ago. I think of her every time I see it on the top of one of my trees. RIP dear lady.
