“ Esther lived a long life and was such a caring, thoughtful person. I enjoyed her telephone calls to see how her cousin Ken was doing. She loved life and was a Christian lady who loved her family and friends. Our prayers and sympathy to Tim and the family who were so precious to her. She has now entered the presence of her savior and is reunited with her husband and children. May she rest in peace eternally. - Shirley and Ken Romberger

“ So sorry for your loss. I worked with Esther many years ago and talked with her a few years ago when I was visiting at the home. She still had that wonderful smile and was as friendly as ever. Our condolences to her family. Carolyn and Bob Bahney
