

Gertrude E. Randall

July 18, 1924 - August 19, 2020

Gertrude E. Randall, 96, entered into eternity with her Savior on August 19, 2020. A longtime resident of Pillow, PA, “Trudy” most recently resided in Klingerstown where her children and grandchildren cared for her until her passing.

Born in Germantown, PA on July 18, 1924 a daughter of the late Gertrude E. (VanFossen) and John J. Lockett. She grew up in the Newtown area where she participated in baseball, field hockey, and 4H before graduating from Newtown High School in 1942. After high school she worked as a key punch operator for Sears & Roebuck in Philadelphia, and as a machine operator for Brewster Aeronautical Corporation and Fleet Wings (both in the Philadelphia area) contributing to the war effort in WWII.

In 1944 she married Herbert J. Randall Jr. and they raised a family of 6 children. Herb & Trudy relocated to the Herndon area in the 1970s and here she worked at various jobs including domestic work, care-giving services and delivering newspapers for The Daily Item. Through the 1980s and 90s Herb and Trudy traveled as a gospel duet. Their singing ministry called “The Way” used music to share the gospel at nursing homes, camp meetings and prison release center. Trudy and Herb were blessed with 57 years of marriage before his passing in 2002.

She loved Jesus Christ and she loved her family, these were the most important things in her life. She had a heart filled with compassion and was always willing to make time to share in conversation or to give a listening ear. She loved encouraging others and collected many uplifting quotes and writings that she made a point to share.

When discussing her age Trudy recently said "I never thought I would live this long. Every day I wake up I say 'Lord, you gave me another day! Thank you!'" Christ was her hope and source of joy, fueling her positive outlook. She is with Christ now, ageless and strong, basking in His glory, eternally home.

In addition to her husband, she was preceded in death by her sisters Mabel Evans and M. Ethel Faruggio, brother John "Jack" Lockett, and daughter Susan Green.

Surviving are her children Robert Randall, Thomas Randall (Gail), Nancy Kenna (Jerry), Bonnie Geer, and Marla Williard (Terry); grandchildren William Randall, Aaron Randall, Ryan Randall, Trisha Wolfe, Thomas Randall Jr., Theresa Whittaker, Marcia Green, Holly McLanahan, Melissa Maltsev, Jessamy Rebuck, and Garrett Latsha; 27 great-grandchildren; brothers Robert Lockett and Charles Lockett; sister Alice Kahn; nieces and nephews; and many friends and loved ones.

Friends and relatives may join for a graveside service to honor and celebrate her life on Saturday, August 22, 1 pm at the Garden of Honor in Northumberland Memorial Park in Stonington, PA.

“ I did not have the privilege of really getting to know my Aunt Gert over the years. It was not till the death of her sister (my grandmother) that I was able to know her better. It did not take long to see what a kind and sweet woman she was. Gertrude had a way of making people feel welcome, wanted and loved. She was beautiful both inside and out. I wish we had had more time to get to know one another....time gets away from us so quickly. Our own families with their issues and constant happenings make it hard to set time aside. If I have learned anything over the last 7 years or so it is that no matter how hard or inconvenient it may be or seem at the time we need to set time aside for our family both immediate and extended ...life is too short and it is important that as family we get to know each other better and share in our loved ones both past and present. I loved Aunt Gert and anyone that knew her could not help but love her as well. I know she is with our Father in heaven and with knowing that It brings a smile to my face.
