Homer was well liked by everyone. Marlin would leave with the car and if he was gone for awhile, I would ask him where he was, Over with Homer. He will be missed by all.

“ I will always remember Homer wearing a big smile on his face. It was like he was beaming from the inside out. He always seemed happy. I know he is with the Lord now and he surely has a huge smile on his face.

Love to the family, Pat Davis

“ Homer was one of the kindest and sweetest men I have ever known. I have a million memories of milking cows together or just chatting about whatever was going on at the time between our families or the valley. God will definitely have a special place for such a wonderful man. My thoughts and prayers will be with the family in this hard time. God Bless. Cindy Witmer Carr

“ Uncle Homer, I will always remember you showing me how to feed the cows, and teasing me about finding a nice farmer to marry. I know you and my Dad are together again, with your parents. My sympathies to Bonnie, Brian, Mike and John. Megan
