“ I remember when my parents sold our childhood home, and my brother and I were in the attic having a good cry, Jack came up and had a good cry with us. He showed us what empathy looks like. Uncle Jack had the best hugs and a heart of gold, peace and love.

“ Jack will be remembered as a man after God's own heart. Jack was a great encouragement to me and my family when we had the privilege of serving as the pastor of Good Shepherd EC Church. Jack and Ellie had us in their home and did all they could to encourage us along as a young couple in ministry. Jack served the Evangelical Congregational Church for many years as a Lay Delegate and on other committees. Jack was always well respected and appreciated by the greater EC family. We thank God for his love, generous spirit and integrity.

“ As these days pass, I am remembering fun times I had with Jack, Eleanor and his brother Budd (Marlin II). Including many nights of table games, a late night trip to Harrisburg for a hamburger and standing in a long line in the cold, in DC, to pay tribute to JFK. Also one Easter, the entire Reed family was present to take communion together at a local church. Bonita Reed

“ It has been an honor and privilege to know Jack Reed, a superlative man of God, for the last 59 years. Jack and Eleanore committed their lives to serving God fully and faithfully in every way they could. Although best known as a funeral director, Jack also managed both retail furniture/flooring and propane service businesses. In the church, Jack assumed leadership roles early and continued for as many years as he was able. As a Gideon, Jack contributed time and resources to support the spread of Gods word as widely as possible.

Jack's Christianity was apparent to anyone who got to know him. It is an understatement to say that although Jack's Christianity was deep and strong, Jack's love and concern for everyone he encountered was sincere, kind and loving. Whether running his businesses, providing leadership in the church, or socializing in his community, Jack was loving, generous and gracious.

I got to know Jack initially as a teenager in the Gratz E. C. Church, and as a result, also observed his generous, gracious and loving kindness in many other contexts, including the Herndon Campmeeting, The Gratz Fair, Church Delegate to Conference, and as a customer and collaborative worker in multiple programs. Jack also played a key role in establishing The Good Sheperd Church for the combined congregations of the former Gratz, Berrysburg and Pillow Pastoral Charge. During the restart and unification of that new church, Jack was a pragmatic visionary, stabilizing leader, untiring worker and contributor.

In every context, Jack was always known and respected as a highly generous contributor and dependable supporter. Jack's whole-hearted integrity, practical and true spirituality, and kind generosity set a standard I could admire throughout my entire life. Thank God for Jack and the exemplary life he lived!
