

Jean E. Weller

June 14, 1930 - November 3, 2020

Jean E. Weller, 90, of Dalmatia, and formerly of Beavertown, passed away Wednesday, November 04, 2020 at Nottingham Village, Northumberland, where she had been a resident since January 17, 2020.

She was born June 14, 1930, in Palmerton, Carbon County, to Lloyd P. and Carrie Malinda "Lynn" (Phillips) Bohner. In 1932 they purchased and moved to their Dalmatia farm.

Jean was a 1948 graduate and valedictorian of Lower Mahanoy High School and a 1952 alumna of Ursinus College. On June 14, 1952, she married (Lower Mahanoy) classmate and salutatorian, Russell A. Weller, who preceded her in death on December 5, 1989.

Jean's professional career involved teaching both English and Special Education. In addition to teaching, Jean served the Beavertown Home & School Club, her church, The American Legion Auxiliary, and Kiwanis International.

After the passing of her husband, Jean became an international traveler and enjoyed learning the histories and cultures of the many countries she had visited.

Surviving are her three sons and daughters-in-law, Michael and Charlene Weller of Millersburg, PA, Timothy and Susan Weller of Rifle, CO, and Christopher and Diane Weller of Beavertown, PA, four granddaughters, Tiana (Weller) Walter, Tami (Weller) Womer, Kendra (Weller) Bray, Ashley Weller, and great-grandchildren Felicity Walter, Darrin Walter, and Fynn Weller-Kehs. Jean is remembered by her granddaughters as a strong independent woman and feisty.

Her family wants to thank her wonderful home care attendants whose unwavering support enabled her to stay at Pathhart farm for many years. There will be no services. Extended family and friends will be invited to gather at the farm on a later date.
