“ Sissy I remember the day I had you it was the day I found out what true love really was. With everyday that passed I loved you even more. I love you from the deepest, purest part of my heart. I thank you for everything thing you ever gave me the good, the bad and the beautiful grandbabies. I loved you more and more with every passing day, my love for you is unconditionally. When you gave us the grandbabies you taught me a knew kind of love that I never knew and I thank you for that. Everytime I look at them I can see a part of you and that will help me find some peace and a way to be able to go on without you. So sissy this is not good bye this is I'll talk to you later. I miss you immensely. I love you & will always love you unconditionally baby. You will always hang my Brightest Star Ox's

“Kate Kate you will be missed more than words can express. You were one of a kind, vibrant, smart, and funny to name a few. Some of my fondest memories as a teenager are of you and your mom and then DennisRay of course. Later in life you gave me memories of you and my daughter. Now I'll have memories of your children with my child. So many memories to list and Emma and I thank you for all of them. We love you Kate Kate and you will forever be in our hearts and missed but we will cherish the memories always!”

“I remember we laughed the day you were born and cried the day we lost you. It's extremely hard to deal with all the emotions but as my lovely niece you left so many memories. We may not see you get married but we promise, as a family, your memory shall never pass for your children. Booger Bear and I love and miss you so much.”

I remember when we had nothing else there was always still each other. I never had a friendship that came so naturally and was perfect all 100% of its time.

I've grieved for you many times over as new information and developments came to me. I wish I could do more for your loved ones. I wish I'd done more for you.

I was just so happy to have you back in my life even super part-time. It made me want to please you when you spoke of things long passed, and I long relented at great risk of you leaving me again. But perfectly on brand, you'd stay insufferable ☐ relentlessly torturing the world and chewing down the strongest resolve to try and get what you wanted.

You were a different person. A happy mom, grown up and responsible. We were there together in life for the first time and it could have been awesome.

I do believe people can change and you were a beautiful example of that. Its the way I like to remember you. Free, happy, and healthy. You were so special.
