“ I'm sorry to hear of Lila's passing. If you need anything let me know and I loved your mom she was a fighter like me and we got along fine. I used to take her shopping and we still laughed about the sugar peas at Giant. I had stopped to see her just after she was in the hospital and we again laughed about the peas. Thanks for sharing her with me. Kathryn Brittingham

I remember my dad always picking your mom up for work while working at Sunbury Textile. She always had a smile.

“ Dear Joan and Family
Joyce and Robert

We were so sorry to hear about the passing of your Mother/Sister. Losing someone is so hard. I know - there is so many in my family. It's funny how the memories start rolling in when you least expect it. When you want to cry, memories of your loved make you laugh or smile. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. If any of you need anything, don't hesitate to call or E-Mail us. God Bless All of You.
