“ We were so saddened to hear of Marie's passing. She was such a sweet person and always made time for my kids. Even as adults they still talk about her and Gib, their garden and all the sweet treats and time spent with them. Being new to living in town we couldn't have hand picked better neighbors then the two of them. She loved her crafts and always included our home in her decor. She will be missed. Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to her family from ours!
