Marlin L. Campbell, 86, of Herndon, went home to be with the Lord on Thursday, March 20, 2020 after a fall and the complications that followed. He died in his home surrounded by family.

“ So sorry for your loss. I surly would have come to sit with you if it was not for the CoronaVirus. I remember our weddings, one week apart much to Nana’s dismay. Loved to listen to the farming conversations at our picnics on the hill. Too many memories to write them here. Love and prayers to friends and family. Charlotte. Aka Lottie

“ Unfortunately living so far away and not spending alot of time with him I dont have alot of memories of him, but I do remember being little and going down to the barn with Keith to see the pigs. Not knowing anything about farming and not being told not to step too close to the pen I did and my foot sank and got stuck. When I pulled my foot out it kept my shoe so I reached down and pulled it out. My cousin was laughing but didn’t now why to find out it was pig poop. Lots of pig poop. That story was never forgotten. He was quiet, loving and a hard worker. Im sure he is living it up in Heaven now with no pain. Im sure my dad was there to greet him with a big hug as always and well just being dad. My heart goes out to all of you. Prayers and Love. Debbie (Reed) Boyer
