“ Our sincere condolences to Maynard's family. I was the organist for 25 of Maynard's 50 years as he lead the singing. One time he told me, " I'd better give up leading the singing." I said, "Oh, no, Maynard! You will lose your voice for singing." so he stayed in there for at least another 10 years. He always greeted us with a big hug after he retired from leading singing. He Loved His Lord and had a wonderful spirit of worship. We loved you, Maynard, you will be missed by many!

“ I so loved Bro. Maynard and his wife. They even took my grandparents spot when my grandparents couldn't come to my graduation! My dad, Rev. Jack Hooker, was their pastor for many years thus the close relationship with our family! They were just so special to me!! May they both enjoy the splendor of Heaven for lives well lived together now with Jesus!! -Janna Hooker Cressman
