“ My heart is breaking... There are no words to express the pain I feel for Seans family. To say that Sean was a great friend is an understatement and does him no justice. There are few people in the world that are fortunate enough to have friends so wonderful and even fewer with hearts as big as Sean's was. Someone who would bend over backwards to help a friend out.

Sean was such a great father to his children and if you spent 1 minute with Sean you knew Sean Jr was his shadow and wanted to be just like his Daddy! Shania... his little princess... a strong bond between father and daughter that you could only understand if you have a daughter or are a daughter and even then, this type of bond is rare.

I have many memories with Sean... even before we met at the skating rink in 1992... when we would all stay up through the night talking on the phone, he would always take us to Ponderosa for lunch with the money he made delivering newspapers, singing the cheesy song Deeply Dippy to me all the time to cheer me up when my 14 year old heart was broken, WHO can forget when Jen broke his leg??? The waterbattle in Jens yard, calling cars, going to the beach in 1997, he would stand on the balcony and yell to girls below, "I am the superman lover" in that silly voice he would do! lol. He met a wonderful woman by the name of Danielle... the best thing to ever happen to him! They had two beautiful babies and entering our 30's our bond was still as strong as it was in 1992! We would celebrate holidays together, every year we would all meet at Jens house to take our children Trick or Treating and every year Sean would have something silly on, this past Halloween it was a rastafarian wig... we always celebrated birthdays and unfortunatly I had only attended Sean's creation, FarmFest, one time. This was his birthday celebration, live bands, karaoke and his closest friends all hanging out on the Wieser farm! What a GREAT time!!!

This past summer he held off on FarmFest and I can only believe that it was ment to be.... a quiet evening sitting on his porch with some of his closest friends, talking, reminiscing and laughing all night. Our children playing together and our last time to celebrate another year of his life.

Sean loved children so much... he was Uncle Sean to our children though we are not truly related... God just decided to make him our brother a little later in life. His family ment the world to him and he accepted us just the same. Having Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners and no matter how tight money got he always made sure to buy every kid a gift... a little like Santa! lol

When you would enter his home there was immediatly a spirit that lifted you, the sounds of conversation, children running around like maniacs, and just a happiness in the air. It will never be the same... 18 years of friendship was not long enough... I can only pray that you watch over everyone and visit us from time to time but most of all, watch over those babies!!!! Listen when they talk and remind them that you are always with them... Sean, I pray that you know how much you are loved and missed by SO MANY people... a lot of hearts are breaking right now. Danielle, Sean Jr, Shania, Rose, Bud and all of his family... I pray for you that God gives you the strength to carry on and please know that I am thinking of and praying for you... All of you had a place in making such a wonderful Son, Father, friend and man! I love you all. Sean, you truly were a real man!

“ Sean,

I'm going to miss that smile and laugh of yours. You definitely knew how to entertain. You were always like a big brother to me. I miss you SO much it hurts. Please visit me from time to time. And let me know your there. I will cherish our friendship forever. You will always live on in my heart.

I love you Big Bro! xOx

To Sean's Mom, Dad, Danielle, Lil' Sean, and Shania, my prayers and thoughts are with you at this time. If there is anything you need, anything at all please let me know!

I'll see you when I get there bro! I know you'll be the first one to greet me! I love you Sean Shady!
