“ I am so sorry for your loss. April was one of the most incredible people I ever met. She was one of the hardest working people I know. Even when she was busy she would stop to listen to her residents and did whatever she could to make their day a little brighter. There were many times we would have to make her take her breaks. Even though she wasn't feeling well she always put her co-workers and residents ahead of herself. I was most impressed when April would talk about her family. She would light up. She really looked forward to your family vacation at the beach. When she would talk about her husband you could tell there was a very special bond. She would tell us about the vacations/trips you were planning and when she returned from those vacations she was so eager to tell us what a wonderful time you had. Everything you all did together ment so much to April. She was such a wonderful person! I am going to miss her. She was an inspiration to me. I will never forget that wonderful smile!

“ I am sorry this is so late. I just found out about ur mothers passing when i went to a program that the hospice had in mt.carmel. my aunt passed away and had a library built for hospice patients familys with books on how to deal with death and dying . They had a slide show presentation honoring eveyone who passed in this past year. I saw ur moms name on the slide show but didnt think it was her. i am so sorry for ur loss. she was a wonderful loving woman. Her family was her everything. She lived for her husband and her kids and those grandbabies. I am one of the lucky few who has wonderful memories of April at work. Times we laughed so hard we almost cried to the meals we had at work where we would stuff ourselves till we thought we would pop. her smile lit up a room. u just couldnt help but find urself smiling along with her. It was give it ur all or just dont bother with April. She always gave her all even when she felt like crap at work u could see her still smiling. i only hope i am half the woman she was. I will never forget her.

“ April was such a strong woman who fought with all she had and now is pain free in an even better place. Every time I ever saw her she had a smile on her face that lit up the entire room. I am so sorry for your loss Anthony, Erika, Krissy and your families. Seeing my half brother Anthony with April was seeing the presence of true love and he would have and did everything he could have done, and that is what love is. I am again so sorry, I am also sorry I am not in town to come to the ceremony, but you are in my prayers. God Bless
