“ Our deepest sympathies to the entire Teitter family.
So many great memories of staying at the Teitter house in the seventies.
Ronnie seemed more like an older brother than a cousin.
A great man, A great mentor.
Rest in peace Ron

“ Uncle Ron was always good to me and was there for me when my grandfather passed away. Some of my best memories include him taking me fishing and giving me my first beer :) He was stern but kind. He was an excellent guitar player and singer to boot. A true patriot has been lost :(

“ I remember dad playing guitar and singing all the the time when I was a kid. My favorite songs he sang were Last Kiss and Puff the Magic Dragon, and I always asked him to play them for me. He also took me on my very first roller coaster the Steamin Deamin at the Great Escape in Lake George, NY. I will always remember all the good times we had together, he was the best dad a kid could ask for and he will be missed more than I can express in words. I will always love you Dad!
