“ For the short time that I knew Troy, I realized that he was a loving father and loving husband , and a great friend . Troy was an avid hunter and those are the memories I remember the most. There was a time that I had shot a deer and I was struggling with back issues while dragging the deer back to camp and even though Troy was suffering more than I was, He came and helped me drag the deer no matter how much I argued with him , he insisted. I know when I'm outdoors hunting or fishing I have a friend watching over me.

“ I met Troy at the LiveStrong class at the YMCA this past spring. I didn't know who he was until he said his last name. Then I realized we were distantly related through my a Grandmother and his Father. I truly enjoyed seeing and talking to him at class. We always tried to encourage each other. He will be missed.

Sincere sympathy to his whole family.
